Once upon a time there was a clever little girl named Jenny Everywhere.

who shifted into magical real of Hidgea

Oh man, looks like I've shifted myself into one of those magical realities

Hi ho, Hi ho-

Uh oh, what do we have here?

What manner of creature are you?

I'm Jenny.

But Jenny's a female's name? This beast is certainly no female

I am too, you fucking munchkin!

Munchkin!
This foul creature has insulted us!

We are Dwarves!

Ouch!

Oi, we should take this savage back to the sorcerous. She'll want to take a look at a female no matter how horrid.

Oh, hell no! Time to get all Jackie Chang on your miniature asses!

PAFF

Shit,
it still stings

Alright dwarf, you run along and tell your sorcerous that I'm now on a personal quest to find her and kick her ass!

Damn, that thing seems closer than
it really is.

That's just nasty

Are you
alright?

Lord,
you're horrible!

Oh, you better
be talking about

the steaming dragon
blood and shit covering my face!
Cause if that was a personal attack,
I'm going to knock you the fuck out like I did that dwarf!

Forgive me.
I'm in a state
of shock.

I am
Sir Parsifal

How
can I be
of service?

And I'm
Jenny Everywhere

That's because it's enchanted. The only way to get there is to walk away from it.

Well, I'm trying to get to the castle but it's deceptively far away.

How very Zen.

Here we are.

That's it? I've been walking all day!

We're going to have to fight our way in.

I hope you're better at fighting monster men than you are dragons!

This was too easy! You'd think a swanky place like this would have better security.

You spoke too soon ma' Lady

This fucking sucks

I've been
a samurai,
a ninja, and a barbarian
in other lives. You pick
a few things up.

You fight
like a man!

Queen Snow White,
forgive the intrusion.
Lady Everywhere
wished an audience
your divine majesty.

What do
you want?

Hold on,
this evil
bitch is Snow
White?

Sir Parsifal,
you dare bring
this hideous little
savage before me!
You offend me.

It's talk like that that's pissed me off!

And you should be
pissed off, dear.
Nature has done
you a great wrong. But it has spared your life.

What happened
to you?

Life happened to me, child! One day
you're a beautiful princess
and the next you're 35
and your knight has run off with a bar wench! I cried and blamed myself for years.

I suddenly understood exactly what my stepmother had gone through. I dove into her books of magic.

And began executing anyone deemed prettier than me.

What do you see when you look in the mirror?

You're pathetic. You rule this magic kingdom with a finely manicured fist! You inflict a swallow regime of beauty upon your people!

A bitter lonely hag?

You know what I see when I look at you?

Grrrrmm

I see a knock out

The End
